Plan To Use Part Of Parcel 15, Lake-Park Surprise City Officials and Others

by Elaine Skolnik

Parcel 15, which has had a dramatic history throughout the last fourteen years in Greenbelt, leaped into the forefront of municipal concern again last month when the information surfaced that the State Highway Administration (SHA) has its eye on a portion of the tract for its proposed reconstruction of the Baltimore-Washington Parkway/Capital Beltway interchange. Also to be included would be a section of the Lake Park behind the municipal warehouse. News of this intent caught city officials and the owners of the parcel by surprise.

Another person apparently surprised was Harris Allen of the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission (MNCPPC). When asked by the News Review about potential plans for mandatory dedication for park purposes when Parcel 15 is developed as a residential tract, Allen exclaimed: "That problem pales into insignificance" when compared to the SHA's proposal to use part of the parcel for reconstruction of the interchange.

Apparently news of the SHA's intent first surfaced at a MNCPPC sub-division review hearing on Parcel 15, held on June 22. There James Kesseling of the SHA permits section presented the new information. He explained that nearly one-half of the 19.68-acre tract would be needed for ramps and various turning movements (Parcel 15 is the tract of land bounded by the Lake Park, the Capital Beltway, Charlestowne Village and Greenbelt Rd. Plans for its development for single family homes were recently reviewed by the city's Advisory Planning Board.)

This proposed SHA action, if realized, will dash the city's hopes for much-needed single-family development. According to Lou Helwig, SHA Section Chief, the proposal to use a portion of parcel 15 and the Lake-Park is "the only alternative proposed for this particular area."

Reaction

The SHA announcement came as a surprise to Chuck Cordero of Ben Dyer Associates, engineers for the owners (Charles Bresler et al), who attended the review meeting. He said he had not known of any alternative for the interchange reconstruction that would impact on the tract.

Similarly, city officials maintain they were not aware of an alternative involving Parcel 15 or the Lake-Park in connection with the reconstruction of the Parkway and the Beltway/Parkway interchange. Helwig, however, said that this alternative has been around since 1976, but in its present form it affects more of the tract now than it did previously.

At a public hearing held by SHA in June 1976 there was apparently no mention of such a proposal. The city, which testified at that time, opposed a proposal to close off the Southway entrance to the Parkway for southbound traffic and later opposed the use of the eastern corner of the Golden Triangle for a ramp that would lead to an access road to the Parkway.

The idea of redesigning the interchanges is generated from the major problem that the Capital Beltway and the Greenbelt Road interchanges are too close together to permit sufficient weaving distances between the many ramps entering and exiting the Parkway.

According to SHA District Engineer William Shook, this latest proposal dealing with Parcel 15 and the Lake Park is in the project planning stages and takes into consideration "the Parkway and Greenbelt Road because they are so close together, and the Kenilworth intersection with the Beltway that needs improvement." Shook also noted that "with Metro coming near the B&O railroad (the thinking is) to bring people off at Kenilworth and take them around the (SHA) District Office Building . . ."

To achieve this, the proposal envisions a connecting ramp that parallels the Beltway — connecting ramps that tie two interchanges, the Parkway and Kenilworth/Greenbelt Road together by providing safe merging conditions and free flow of traffic.

Timetable

In the meantime the MNCPPC staff will make its recommendations to the Planning Board on the preliminary subdivision plan for parcel 15, including the request by SHA for withholding nearly half the tract for roads. In the past the Planning Board has honored such requests from SHA for highway programs.

Council to Consider

The subdivision plan for parcel 15 and the reconstruction of the Baltimore-Washington Parkway will be considered by city council next Monday, July 9, at 8 p.m.

gle developer, was in a similar situation when SHA, in connection with the reconstruction of the Parkway, asked that five acres on the eastern part of the land be withheld. This required the relocation of the Capitol Cadillac facility. SHA also has designs on Triangle land in the Greenbelt Road-Kenilworth Avenue corner, which will require resiting of an office building.

According to Helwig, public hearings on the entire Parkway reconstruction from the District of Columbia to Baltimore (30 miles) will be held after detailed engineering studies and an environmental impact statement are completed—"about one year away, more or less." An informational hearing on the engineering aspects will be held in late spring 1980.

Metro Fares Change

Metrobus and Metrorail fares were raised slightly July 1.

Metrobus Maryland rush hour base fares have increased from 50c to 55c. Rush hour border crossing charges from D.C. into Maryland (and vice-versa) were also raised from 30c to 35c, and are charged on all bus trips crossing the District line: i.e., if a passenger boards an R-12 with a transfer at the Deanwood Metro Station, she/he must still add 35c to come to Greenbelt.

Metrorail boarding charge (for the first three miles of rail travel) has also been increased from 40c to 45c. Each extra mile traveled now costs 9.5c, up 1c.

Transfers from a Maryland Metro station to a Maryland bus, formerly free, now cost 10c. Rail-to-bus transfers are still free in the District.

The new increases now spotlight the savings of a Metro "Flash Pass". These still remain at the old price of $16 which includes: two weeks of unlimited bus travel and $6 of Metrorail farecard value.

Parking fees at some stations were also raised: New Carrollton, up from 50c to 75c, Landover and Cheverly, up from 75c to one dollar.

from 8 a.m.-12 p.m. Sundays the pumps are closed, but there is 24 hour service and towing. When asked if people were causing any problems, the person we spoke to said: "More people are asking us if people are giving us a hard time, than are giving us a hard time." He also noted that "Odd-Even" hasn't helped so far at the Greenbelt Road service stations because most dealers have been out of their June allotment. Once the July allotments come in, "Odd-Even" should be helpful.

Mobil

Beltway Plaza Mobil/Car Wash on Cherrywood Lane is open 10-10:30 a.m. and 4:30-5:30 p.m. Monday-Friday, pumping 1,500 gallons per day. Saturday hours are 10 a.m.-12 noon. Sunday only the car wash is open. This station uses a different system of selling gas. One can only purchase $5 worth of gas for a 4-cylinder car and $7 worth for 6 or more cylinders, but no more. This is designed to protect the car wash, which has suffered a

Community Groups Invited To Join Busing Workshop

The Board of Education has scheduled an evening of discussion on issues related to the county's desegregation plan, and is inviting representatives of community groups to take part. The Busing Workshop is to be held on Monday, July 9 at Largo Senior High School, beginning at 7 p.m.

The workshop will provide the board members their first formal opportunity to explore the broad range of issues related to desegregation directly, face-to-face, with representatives of a cross section of community groups. Organizations which want to send a participant to the workshop are being invited to submit a letter to the Board of Education designating a representative and an alternate. The names of 20 organizations will be drawn at random that evening (July 9) to take part in the discussions with the board members. One hour of the evening also will be set aside for informal discussions with the audience.

The workshop, scheduled to last 4½ hours (7-11:30 p.m.) will be divided into two sessions, with 10 of the 20 organization representatives taking part in each session. The first hour of each session will be devoted to a round table discussion with the board members. Another half hour will be designated for each table participant to turn to the audience seated behind him or her for input and dialogue. Then the table participants will reconvene to summarize the reactions and comments of the members of the public.

Organizations wishing to designate representatives for possible participation in the Busing Workshop should write to the following address: Board Secretary, Board of Ed., Upper Marlboro, Md. 20870.

Local Stations List Hours For Gas Sales

by Alan Amberg

How many of us while driving have suddenly discovered that we need gasoline and asked ourselves where we can find a station that is open and pumping gas?

In answer to this question, the News Review presents the following guide to most of the Greenbelt area gas stations.

Exxon

The Greenbelt Exxon Servicenter, located at 5900 Greenbelt Road, is open Monday-Friday 3 hours per day; 7-8:30 a.m. and 1-2:30 p.m., and is closed weekends. The station uses the new flag system to tell customers what kind of gas it is selling. The flags are stuck in the telephone pole at the west end of the station. A green flag indicates that the station is pumping both unleaded and regular gas. A yellow flag indicates leaded only. A red flag means no gas but the station is open for all other services.

Our reporter took about 30 minutes to get through the gas line at 1 p.m. on Thursday, June 14 and

28. She was impressed that the station sent an attendant down the line to tell customers when the station was out of unleaded and also with the early use of the flags before the system officially went into effect. Jim Cathcart, the owner, said that he gets about 150 calls each day asking if there is gas; he also thought that lines would move faster if people used the full-service line as the majority now use self-service only. One enterprising entrepreneur, David Fields of Fred Frederick Chrysler in Laurel, was going up and down the gas line trying to sell people small cars.

Shell

Beltway Plaza Shell, 5550 Greenbelt Rd., is open 7-10 a.m., Monday-Friday to pump its daily allotment. It is closed on Saturdays and Sundays. The gas allotments are received monthly. The owner, Keith Daniels, said that if the July allotment was bigger, he'd stay open longer. He also mentioned that he had no problems with customers.

Greenbelt Road Shell, 6327 Greenbelt Road, is open Monday-Saturday

loss of business and is normally the main profit maker. The management plans to use the flags, they say.

Texaco

The Berwyn Heights Texaco, 6001 Greenbelt Road, has not been receiving its shipments on a regular enough basis to set daily hours. The owner, Mr. Robinson, said, "Whenever I get it, I do it."

Fisca

The Fisca station on Greenbelt Road has received its July allotment and is open 11 a.m.-7 p.m., Monday-Saturday. The station is closed on Sundays.

Amoco

The Amoco station and car wash, 5901 Greenbelt Road, is open from 7-9:30 or 10 a.m. until it pumps its daily allotment. It only pumps gas Monday through Friday, but the car wash is open on the weekend. Customers have been cooperating to keep gas lines off Greenbelt Rd., running instead, back into Berwyn Heights.

Arco

Scotty's Arco Mini-Mart on Cherrywood Lane at Breezewood Drive will be open 4-8 p.m. Monday-Friday, but does not receive its next allotment of gas until July 5. They receive 8,000 gallons per tanker shipment. The station is pumping 85% of the amount pumped last year at this time.

The owner, Scott Graham, was away and unable to give the News Review further details. The manager, Candy Kees, noted that the customers for the most part had been very nice. "I understand how they feel, but at the same time they have to understand our predicament . . . I don't understand (the gasoline shortage) either . . . after I get off work, I have to go find a station that's open so I can sit in a gas line, too."

The Goddard Arco Mini-Mart, 8711 Greenbelt Road, opens at 6:30 a.m., Monday-Friday, and pumps until the daily gas allotment is gone, usually around lunch time. It is also open Saturdays and Sundays at 7 a.m. All pumping is self-service. Regular gas allotment is 1,050 gal./day; unleaded, 1,400 gal./day; and Super Regular, 750 gal./day.

The Assistant Manager, Carla Bennett, said that while most people have been nice, many customers did not understand the minimum purchase requirements. The station also is starting the flag system.

Woody's Mobil

According to station attendants at Woody's Mobil, in the Center, the station will open at 7 a.m. for gasoline and will remain open until the daily allotment of 1,500 gallons is sold.

Ex-Val

At Ex-Val on Southway, the station opens at 7 a.m. on most weekdays, 8 a.m. on Saturdays, and remains open until 3,000 gallons are sold. On some days, however, the Ex-Val station's gas lines do not open and a spokesman at the station stated that signs would be placed on the pumps the evening before the station will be closed. The station is open normal hours for repair work and is closed on Sundays.

Exemptions, Penalties

The State Police reminds drivers that there is a $100 fine for buying less than a minimum purchase, though if persons are 50c short, they will not be prosecuted. The $100 fine also applies to people who try to buy gas on the wrong day, i.e., a person with an odd license plate trying to buy gas on an even day, or to people who try to buy more than two gallons for a gas can.

Exemptions are available at the State Police Barracks 10100 Rhode Island Avenue, College Park. These exemptions only exempt drivers from "Odd-Even," not from minimum purchase, and are only available to people who must drive 75 miles per day or 400 miles per week for business purposes (in addition to commuting distances). People are requested not to call the State Police with questions about the gas situation as such calls tie up the telephone lines and prevent important calls from getting through. (Also contributing to this story was Mary Lou Williamson.)

Missing the Point

To the Editor:

Bettie Denson misses the point of Ben Hogensen's (and others) objections to persons using tape recorders to make personal recordings of GHI Board meetings. This can be a type of harassment. While I would trust that Ms. Denson has no intention to circulate a remark made out of context, letting such a practice begin can open such possibilities for unscrupulous people. It is for precisely this reason that persons are ordinarily asked whether they wish to be recorded or not.

If knowing that one's slightest remark will be recorded adds to tension for board members, then it is harassment. Board members make decisions involving a multi-million dollar budget, and they ought to be able to feel as relaxed as possible, not that they are regarded without trust. It is true that it is not illegal to make recordings without permission; however, it does not follow that it is either basically moral or polite to engage in harassment tactics, even if that is not one's intent.

I have considerable feelings on this because as a teacher in the county's public schools I do have protection from any possibility of certain types of harassment by either parent or student: tape recorders are allowed only with our permission. In a tense job I can have a little relaxation knowing that my remarks will not be lifted from their context, nor will those of my students. I believe the GHI Board is entitled to as much consideration.

Refuse Schedule Change

Beginning the week of July 9, 1979, refuse collections will be changed from a six-day-per-week schedule to a five-day-per-week schedule. This is not a reduction in service, but a schedule change designated to eliminate mid-week days off for the crew and the problem of absenteeism and supervision on Saturdays. Also, it is anticipated it will in a small way reduce fuel consumption in the trucks.

The following summary shows the new schedule.

REFUSE COLLECTION SCHEDULE EFFECTIVE JULY 9, 1979

An Appeal to Our GHI Neighbors

We, the undersigned members of Greenbelt Homes, have signed the Amendment to the Mutual Ownership Contract. This amendment gives Greenbelt Homes the ability to borrow money for rehabilitation at a low interest rate, about 8%; whereas without the signed amendments, it will be necessary to borrow at about 14% interest.

All of us will have to pay higher monthly charges unless enough of us sign. Approximately two-thirds of the necessary number have already signed.

If you haven't signed, won't you please. If you have lost your copy of the Amendment, you can get another at GHI offices, or call 474-3604.

We have it on high authority that sharing the ride is a very good idea.

It made sense to Noah.
After all, it was a whole lot more economical and efficient to get together and share the ride than it would have been for everybody to go their own way. And that still holds true today. Sharing the ride with just one other person can cut your commuting costs in half. Think about it.

Share the ride with a friend.
It sure beats driving alone.

History

At the public hearing in 1976 six alternatives for reconstruction of the entire Parkway were presented. They were: 1) no major construction, 2) reconstruction with minimal widening and limited truck traffic, 3) six lanes with bus/carpool and limited truck traffic, 4) six lanes with truck traffic throughout, 5) six lanes with truck traffic throughout, 6) eight lanes with truck traffic throughout. The report recommended that only the first three alternatives be retained for further study.

At that time the city opted for Alternative 1, but recommended that if Alternative 2 is chosen there would be no connection to the Outer Beltway (intercounty connector) that I-95 not be routed to the Parkway, that trucks be prohibited and that the major improvements proposed to the interchange of Greenbelt Road and I-495 (closing off of Southway entrance to Parkway) not be undertaken. The city considered Alternative 3 totally unacceptable.

In July 1978 the city opposed an expansion of Alternative 2 that provided for the future staged construction of the Parkway to six lanes beyond the Capital Beltway to the proposed Intercounty Connector. The council restated its previous position in opposition to the intercounty connector.

Recreation Review

Summer Teen Sports Program

This year, the Recreation Department is running a summer sports program for teens, ages 12-15 years. There will be pick-up games ranging from softball to soccer. The more teenagers who participate, the better the competition. Those interested should come on down to Braden Field #2 on Mons. and Fris. from 10 a.m.-1 p.m.

Summer Registration

Plan now to register on Mon., July 9, 9 p.m.-11 a.m., at the Greenbelt Youth Center for the second session of swimming lessons and children's daily arts and crafts, archery, tennis, and trampoline programs. See the separate ad in this issue of the NEWS REVIEW for complete details. Third registration will be held on Monday, July 23.

Special Populations Swim Programs

Let's Play-To-Grow—Classes held on Mons. at the Municipal Swimming Pool at 10 a.m. Classes offered for all ages and taught by a Certified Adaptive Aquatics Instructor. Fun in the water stresses water development and adaptive skills as well as safety rules.

Senior Citizen Recreational Swim—Held at the Municipal Pool on Mons. at 11 a.m.-12 noon. Swim is designed to promote physical fitness and additional opportunities for swimming fun and social interaction.

KAVA Splash Party News

Even though Mother Nature did not cooperate for the First Splash Party, the Greenbelt Rec. Dept. is hoping for bigger crowds and better weather for the next party on July 7. Entertainment will be provided by the Cosmos Sound, who will have the Top of the Chart Selections as well as the Best of the Golden Oldies. Plan now for a super time at the Teen Splash Party held at Greenbelt Municipal Swimming Pool.

Orioles Game

On July 19, the Rec. Dept. and KAVA Teen Club are sponsoring a night at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium to see the league leading Baltimore Orioles. The 'Birds' will be playing the California Angels, one of the top clubs in the American League. This trip will cost just enough to cover admission and bus transportation. Seats are limited and will be sold on a first come, first serve basis. The bus will leave the Youth Center at 6 p.m.

Swim Team News

The Greenbelt swim team started off its season by defeating Gateway and Longbranch with a score of 296 to 325 to 394. Because this was a tri-meet, it was not scored by the usual method. Instead divisional scoring applied with each 1st place earning 7 points, 2nd (5), 3rd (4), 4th (3), 5th (2), and 6th (1). Those who earned the maximum of three firsts were Lynda and Mark Blue and Craig Dies. Other high point scorers were Robbie Reed (19); Nicolette Durantine, Aimee Fellows, and Susan Gardes with 17; Laura Martin (16); James Fellows and Ken Blue with 15; Colin Aldridge (14); Margaret Williamson (13); Tara Yaney (12); Dana Sensi, Jay Gordon, and Tim Gardes with 11 points; Trenny Sacrey and Brian Dies with 10; Henry Fields (9); and Scott and Shawn Luddy and Simone Bram with 8 points.

It was noticed by many of our swimmers that Sue Jones has defected and is now coaching Long Branch. She had to give up her volunteer work at Greenbelt to take a full time job teaching and coaching in Montgomery County.

This Saturday Greenbelt will swim against Smallwood Village at Greenbelt pool. This promises to be a close meet. Swimmers and officials should meet at the pool by 8:30 a.m.
